GLOBAL ACTION

◆ REACHING OUT IN LOVE TO THE CHILDREN OF UKRAINE ◆

When Global Action trains pastors in Ukraine, their churches fulfill the Great Commission of making disciples and reaching out to the orphans and street kids in their communities. This past year, there were summer camps hosted by 20 local churches that ministered to 1305 children, Christmas events for more than 2000 children, and several new church plants throughout Ukraine.

◆ Mark, 8 ◆

I am Mark Nosenko, 8-years-old, and I had a wonderful time in summer camp. We had a talent show, morning Bibles lessons, volleyball, chess, and swam in a swimming pool. Since I am from a disabled family, I rarely have good food, so during camp I ate a lot and the food was delicious.

The counselors treated me with respect and dignity and I learned from the Bibles lessons--heroes like Moses whom I liked a lot. He was a brave man who became a leader for his nation. We read from a children's Bible and discussed the stories with our counselors. Camp was really fun--I hope to go again. Thank you to Global Action for making this possible.

◆ Eve, 9 ◆

I'm Eve, 9 years old, and my little sister and I came to a camp this summer. I remember the fun activities like swimming, a talent show, and delicious food. We sang songs about Jesus, made crafts related to the Bible, and our loving counselors told us interesting Bible stories. The last evening we had a campfire, marshmallows, sausages and a great time. I will be happy to return to the camp next year.
