

A low-angle photograph of a building with a blue tarp and a yellow tarp in the foreground. The building is on the left side of the frame, and the tarps are draped over the right side. The sky is a uniform, dark grey color. The text is overlaid in the center of the image.

BOMBINGS.

DEEP WINTER.

SEVERE COLD.

BUT THEY CAME.

THERE WERE REASONS TO STAY HOME.

WARMER, SAFER PLACES TO WAIT THINGS OUT.

BUT THEY CAME.

”

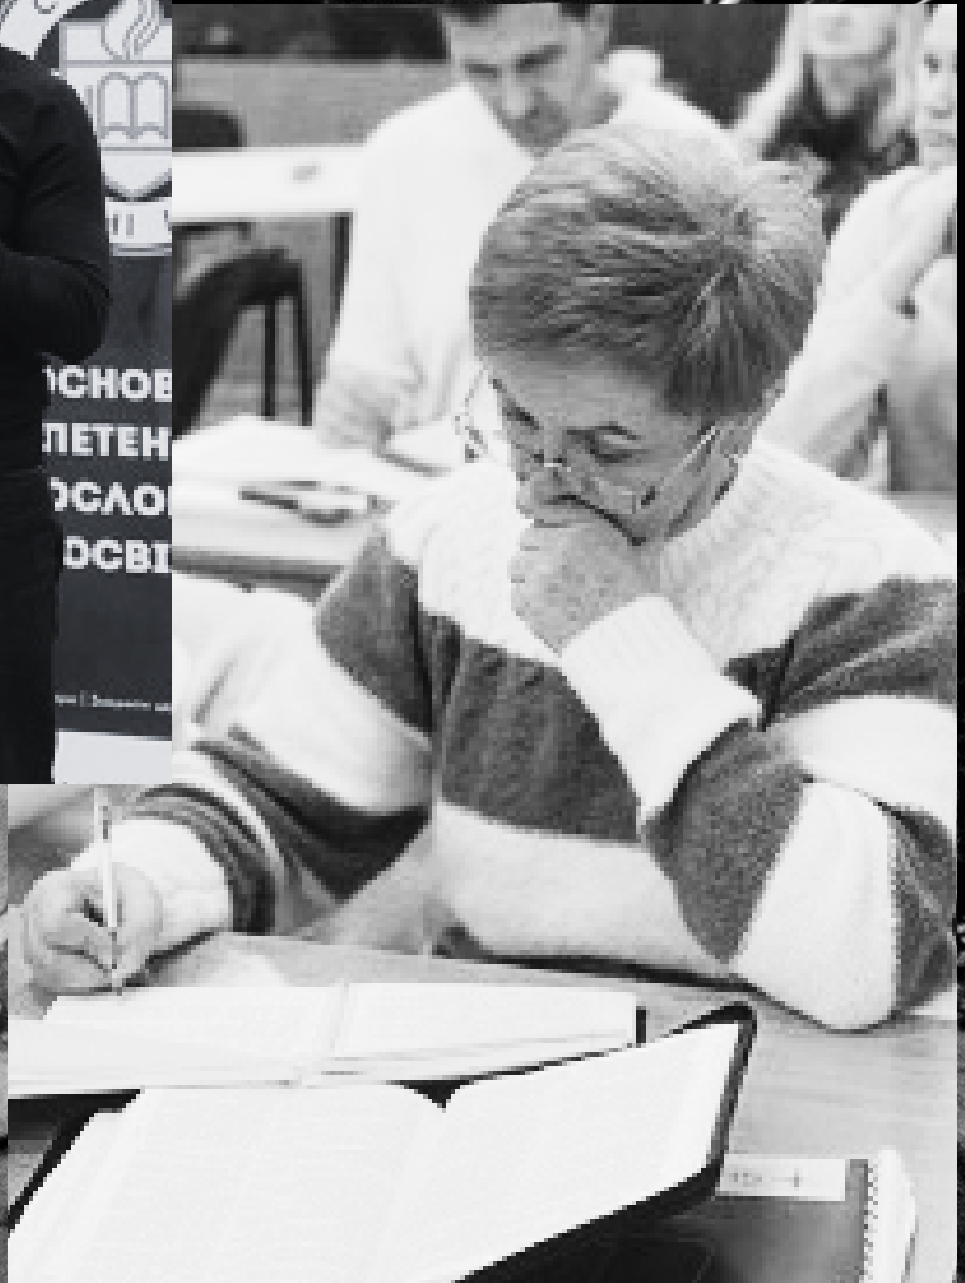

WEARING COATS AND SWEATERS,
SITTING IN DARK ROOMS,

USING PHONE FLASHLIGHTS & SMALL LAMPS.

CHURCH LEADERS GATHERED ANYWAY.

THEY OPENED THEIR BIBLES

THIS IS THE FOUNDATIONS
PROGRAM IN UKRAINE.

THIS IS FORMATION IN THE MIDDLE OF WAR

NOT EDUCATION FOR CONVENIENCE

They are seeking equipping— to preach Christ faithfully,

WHEN THE LIGHTS GO OUT,
THE CHURCH DOES NOT STOP LEARNING.

WHEN THE COLD DEEPENS,
THE HUNGER FOR GOD'S WORD GROWS STRONGER.

AND EVEN IN WAR THE CHURCH CHOOSES TO BE EQUIPPED

THIS IS FOUNDATIONS IN UKRAINE.

IGOR GRYSHAYEV
DIRECTOR OF EUROPE

